

Exploring the Impact of Implicit Bias

Audience

Victim advocates, law enforcement, prosecutors, and allied professionals

Training Information

In this training, participants will increase their understanding of implicit bias, and learn how implicit bias may impact responses to sexual violence. Additionally, we will explore the links between sexual violence and oppression and outline ways multidisciplinary teams can work to mitigate the effects of implicit bias on victims and the criminal justice response to violence.

REGISTER NOW!

- Visit www.pcar.org
- Click on Training & Events
- or Email Erin Levine-Krynock at elevine-krynock@pcar.org

July 10th, 9:00AM-4:30PM

Best Western Premier,
Central Room A
800 East Park Drive
Harrisburg, PA 17111

Presented By

Sara Goodkind, PhD

Associate Professor Sara Goodkind earned a PhD in social work and sociology, a graduate certificate in women's studies, and an MSW, all from the University of Michigan.

For more information about our presenter, please visit the Registration Page at www.pcar.org under Training and Events!